- Original documents issued abroad, in accordance with the legislation of the respective country, and documents issued outside Portugal legalized by a foreign civil servant, are considered legalized under Portuguese Law if the signature of the public servant is certified by a Portuguese diplomatic agent or consular officer in the respective State and the signature of that agent is authenticated with the respective consular seal. In cases of documents issued by signatories of the Hague Convention of 5th

October 1961, the documents will be legalized by apostille, under the terms of Article 3 of the convention.

- If the documentation to be submitted is in a language other than English, it is imperative that a translation is provided in accordance with the notarial legislation.
- Applicants under this special admission procedure are not eligible for international student status.

5. Submission of the application

Applications to the Integrated Master Degree in Medicine at the Católica Medical School must be submitted exclusively through the online system, available on the website: <https://fm.ucp.pt/integrated-master-medicine/applications?change-language=1>.

6. Assessment of applications and publication of results

The selection and ranking of applicants will be carried out by the appointed jury, composed of the Dean of the Católica Medical School, Professor António Medina de Almeida, and the members of the Admissions Assessment Committee.

The application grade will be a weighted average of the assessment of the following criteria:

Criterion (expressed on a scale from 0 to 200)	Weighting
a) Age of applicant	20%
b) Area of the last Higher Education Degree	10%
c) Type of Higher Education Degree (last degree)	5%
d) Secondary school entrance exam grades (required)	25%
e) Grade of the ranking prerequisites	40%

The detailed marks to be awarded for the criterion “Applicant's age” are:

Criterion	Age range	Score
a) Applicant's age	< 35 years	200
	≥ 35 e < 45 years	150
	≥ 45 years	100

The detailed marks to be awarded for the criterion “Area of the last Higher Education Degree” are:

Criterion	Field	Score
b) Area of the last Higher Education Degree	Medical and Health Sciences	200
	Exact and Natural Sciences	175
	Engineering and Technology	150
	Other Fields	100

The detailed scores to be awarded for the “Type of Higher Education Degree” criterion are:

Criterion	Degree	Score
c) Type of Academic Degree in Higher Education	3 rd Cycle - PhD	200
	2 nd Cycle - Master’s degree or Integrated Master's Degree	150
	1 st Cycle - Undergraduate	100

The detailed marks awarded for criterion “d) Secondary School Entrance Examination Grades” correspond to the grades indicated in the official documents submitted by the applicant or those obtained in the internal entrance examinations, expressed on a 0–200 scale.

The detailed marks awarded for criterion “e) Classification of prerequisites” are determined in accordance with attached I of the Regulations for Access and Admission to the Integrated Cycle of Studies leading to a master’s degree in medicine at the Católica Medical School, on a scale of 0 to 200.

The application grade is calculated on a 0–200 scale using the following formula. The final result is rounded to the nearest tenth, with values equal to or greater than 0.05 being rounded up:

$$NC = (a \times 0,2) + (b \times 0,1) + (c \times 0,05) + (d \times 0,25) + (e \times 0,4)$$

The results will be communicated to applicants through the online application process and will be classified as follows: Admitted / Not Admitted / Excluded. The anonymized final ranking list will also be available for consultation in the online application process.

7. Operation

The Integrated Master’s in Medicine has a duration of 6 years (360 ECTS). Classes are generally held from Monday to Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Assessments also typically take place within these hours. The program is taught in English. It includes academic activities conducted both inside and outside the classroom, and specific software is actively used. As such, students are required to have a laptop computer to fully participate in all learning activities.

8. Tuition fees, payments and other fees

The amounts for tuition fees, payments and other fees are determined annually, and published in a separate document (Tabela de propinas, taxas e emolumentos), so these values may be subject to change in subsequent academic years.

The updated values can be consulted on the website: <https://www.fm.ucp.pt/integrated-master-medicine/scholarships-and-tuition-fee?change-language=1>

The application fee is non-refundable, including in cases of cancellation, withdrawal, or exclusion of the application.

The registration requires the payment of the respective fee (which includes student insurance), as well as the first three (3) monthly tuition instalments, in accordance with the Tabela de propinas, taxas e emolumentos.

In the event of cancellation of enrollment by September 1st, 2026, the second and third tuition fees will be refunded. In the event of withdrawal from the programme, it is important to note that the enrollment fee, as well as the initial monthly fee, is non-refundable. This policy remains in effect even if the withdrawal is requested within the designated timeframe.

9. Registration

Registration information will be sent to admitted applicants after the results have been published. To complete the registration, the payment of the annual registration fee and the first three (3) monthly tuition fees will be required, as well as the submission of the online enrollment form, including information requested by the Ministry of Science, Technology, and Higher Education (RAIDES survey).

If the applicant does not register within the established deadline, their application will be considered to be withdrawn.

The original documents submitted during the application process must be presented by September 10th, 2026, under penalty of cancellation of enrollment, and without any refund for payments made until that date. The submitted documents must be original or authenticated copies. For archival purposes, the Academic Services may make a copy of the original document, which will be returned to the student at no additional cost.

10. Credit transfer from previous education

If applicable, applicants may submit a request for the acceptance of curricular units completed in their original higher education programme when completing the application.

Applicants may also request credit transfer for previously completed training or education. When requested, the credit transfer will be processed according to the Regulation of Credit Transfer at Universidade Católica Portuguesa, approved by Order NR/C/0332/2019 of October 24th, 2019, and the appropriate fees will be applied.
