1. Framework

The Rector of Universidade Católica Portuguesa, Prof. Dr. Isabel Capelo Gil, hereby announces the opening of an international call for applications for one vacancy of auxiliary researcher to perform duties of scientific research and knowledge transfer, with an exclusivity clause, in the scientific field of Cell Biology. The research activities will be carried out at the Católica Biomedical Research Centre (CBR), integrated at the Católica Medical School of Universidade Católica Portuguesa, in Lisboa - Oeiras, within the framework of the ERC-2020-COG-Chromosilence-101002391- Chromosome Based Mechanisms of Transcriptional Inactivation During Mitosis", financiado pelo European Research Council (ERC).

Chromosilence aims to investigate the regulation of Mitotic Transcription Inactivation (MTI) at a cellular and organismal level. Using different technological approaches, we aim to uncover new regulators of MTI and its impact on mitotic fidelity, genomic stability and transcription regulation during cell differentiation. The successful candidate will develop their work on Aims 2 and 3 of Chromosilence: Uncover the mechanisms of chromosome driven MTI and the consequences of its impairment. Specifically, the candidate to be recruited will investigate the most affected nascent transcripts upon MTI inactivation and the cellular consequences of this deregulation.
