The application will only be completed once payment has been made.

All notifications regarding this procedure will be sent to the email address indicated on the application form.

6. Assessment of applications and publication of results

The selection and ranking of candidates will be carried out by the jury, which is made up of the Course Coordinator:

- Professor António Medina de Almeida, Dean of Católica Medical School;
- Professor Marlene Maria Tourais de Barros, Universidade Católica Portuguesa Faculty of Dental Medicine;
- Professor Ana Margarida Mineiro Rodrigues Zaky, Dean of Universidade Católica Portuguesa Faculty of Health Sciences and Nursing;
- Professor Pedro Manuel Torres Rio Dias Mateus;
- Professor João Pedro Monteiro e Louro Machado de Simas;
- Professor Paulo Oom Ferreira de Sousa;
- Professor Francisca Maria Pais Horta Leite;
- Professor André Ricardo Maia Correia;
- Professor Manuel Luís Vila Capelas.

The following criteria will be considered when ranking candidates:

1. Curricular Analysis - graded from 0 to 20 and presented to the nearest decimal place - which will consider:
 - a) Research experience, including scientific communications and publications;
 - b) Professional activity, courses, internships or other relevant experience.
2. Individual Interview - graded from 0 to 20 and presented to the nearest decimal place - which will include a brief presentation of the candidate's personal and scientific background and will focus on two criteria:
 - a) Scientific knowledge, research experience and professional experience;
 - b) Motivation, availability, communication skills and interpersonal abilities.
3. Analysis of the Motivation Letter - graded from 0 to 20 and presented to the nearest decimal place - which should include, where applicable, the intention of the project to be developed.

The application grade will be a weighted average of the assessment of the following criteria:

Criterion (expressed on a scale from 0 to 200)	Weighting
Curricular Analysis	50%
Individual Interview	40%
Motivation Letter	10%

The applicants will be ranked according to their final classification (on a numerical scale from 0 to 20).

The results will be communicated to applicants in the online application process and will be expressed as follows: Admitted/Not Admitted/Excluded. The anonymized final ranking list can be consulted in the online application process.

NOTES:

- Whenever the Jury deems it necessary, it may ask one or more specialists with a doctorate in the field of specialisation to analyze the application and issue an opinion.
- The call for the interview, indicating the date and time, will be sent and made available in the online application process.
- The link to the interview will be sent to the email address indicated in the application process.
- In the event of a tie in the final ranking of the last candidate, an additional number of vacancies will be created equal to the number of tied candidates with the same application grade as the last candidate.

7. Operation

The PhD in Medical Sciences has a duration of 4 years (240 ECTS) and operates on a hybrid basis. The 1st curricular year consists of a doctoral course, in which classes will mostly be taught after working hours. The preferred language is Portuguese, although some classes may be taught in English.

The 2nd, 3rd and 4th years of the PhD in Medical Sciences correspond to the development of the Thesis.

8. Tuition fees, payments and other fees

The value of tuition fees, payments and other fees are determined annually, and published in a separate document (Tabela de propinas, taxas e emolumentos), therefore, the values for subsequent school years may change.

The updated values can be consulted on the Católica Medical School website.

The application fee is non-refundable in situations of cancellation, withdrawal or exclusion of the application.

The registration requires the payment of the respective fee (which includes student insurance), as well as the first monthly tuition fee, as indicated in the Tabela de propinas, taxas e emolumentos.

9. Registration

Applicants admitted to the PhD in Medical Sciences must register within the deadline established in paragraph 3 of this notice. If the applicant does not register within the established deadline, their application will be considered to be withdrawn.

The original documents submitted during the application process must be presented until 24th October 2025, under penalty of cancellation of enrollment, and without any refund for payments made until that date. The submitted documents must be originals or authenticated copies. For the purpose of archiving in the student's individual record, the Academic and Administrative Services of Católica Medical School, may make a copy of the original document, which will be returned to the student, without any additional costs.

10. Other Information

The PhD in Medical Sciences will take place mainly at the Faculty of Medicine.

Some teaching and research project components may also take place at the Universidade Católica Portuguesa Faculty of Dental Medicine or Faculty of Health Sciences and Nursing.

Further information about the program is available on the Católica Medical School website.
